

Introduction for Kari Berit

/pronounced CAR-ee BEAR-it /

I am thrilled to introduce Kari Berit as our keynote speaker this morning.

Her topic today is: _____

Kari is very much in demand as a speaker in the field of living fully engaged and aging. She has spoken to groups as varied as the American Society on Aging, many Professional Conferences, Law Firms, Insurance Companies, and corporations such as Wells Fargo.

Kari is not only a speaker, but also an author and coach. Her education includes a BA in Psychology and Norwegian from St. Olaf College, a Master's Degree in Continuing and Vocational Education from the University of WI, Madison, and over 18 years designing and teaching programs for older adults. Kari has worked 13 years as a resident manager, dementia care specialist, activity and housing director for numerous senior housing communities.

As a guest speaker for industry associations and private business groups, Kari has instructed thousands—nationwide—on living full engaged throughout life.
